Pasig Diocesan Schools System through the Center for Christian Formation (CCF) scheduled the annual PaDSS Mass of the Holy Spirit at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on June 25, 2018 which was attended by students of Sto. Tomas de Villanueva Parochial School and Sto. Niño Parish School. Dr. Leo B. Galve, School Director and Dr. Marcella D. Bejado, School Principal of both schools accompanied students who were also ushered by Mr. Jayson Villafuerte for SNPS and Mrs. Susana Nahag, Mrs. Helen Aquino and Ms. Gina Bagtas for STVPS.

No less than Bishop Mylo Hubert C. Vergara, DD. celebrated the Mass with Rev. Fr. Orlindo Ordoña, Rev. Fr. Orlando Cantillon and Rev. Fr. Bernardo Carpio concelebrating. In his Homily, the Bishop shared his vocation story and after which encouraged PaDSS personnel and students to be instruments of peace in consoling a broken heart. In the end, a two-minute video presentation of the message of His Eminence Luis Antonio Cardinal Tagle was projected on screen.

Rev. Fr. Orlindo Ordoña, PaDSS Superintendent expressed his gratitude to the administrators from the DepEd Divisions of Pasig, Taguig and Pateros. He also recognized the presence of congregational schools, the altar servers, the lectors and commentators, the catechists of the Diocese of Pasig and the entire PaDSS Community. He ended with a hope that the Holy Spirit will inspire all of us to work further in our mission of providing holistic education to the young.

Pictures were taken by Division and Organization which was followed by a hearty brunch.
