Parents Orientation plays an important role in the onset of classes as it provides opportunity in knowing the latest updates of operations, more so, the chance to get to know the advisers and the teachers of students. Discussions on school culture, rules and calendar added practical value in determining parents' essential responsibility in the education of their child.

Sto. Tomas de Villanueva Parochial School held the Parents Orientation Meeting last June 29, 2019 at the Santo Tomas de Villanueva Parish. Registration started at 7:00 a.m. to 477 parent-attendees. Discussions on Student Financial Assistance by the local cooperative, the innovations on the Scholastic Program, the SchoolDex entries, the updates on children's academic performance, the plans and programs as well as the reminders of decorum in the school and the deepening of the PaDSS theme were undertaken in the plenary. After which, parents were directed to the classrooms for the concurrent sessions as regards the specific policies in the student handbook, classroom rules and regulations and the election of class officers.

The school year 2019-2020 proves to be promising in terms of parents' trust for their children's Catholic Education. We pray that the discipline, the character and the competence of parents could be sustained towards achieving holistic development of their children in school!
